

Thomas Seest and Nini Theilade wins Swedish first prize

The Swedish jury announced the winners of the film festival 60 Seconds Dance, and the first prize went to the film “Titania III” by Thomas Seest. A 100 year old Nini Theilade, re-enacts her famous choreography; Titania, queen of the ferries. From the film “A midsummer nights dream”, 1935, Hollywood.

Jury’s statement:

A precise and quietly detailed reflection of the choreography and the ageing of the body. With modest means, beautiful and intelligent lighting, the film conveys, on subtilast possible way, a whole life in dance.

Thomas Seest with members of the jury in Stockholm, 28. april 2016. From left: Thomas Seest, Henrik von Sydow, Cyntia Botello, and Klara Berggren

Titania III

Performer: Nini Theilade

Music: Mendelsohn (from the original film)

Camera and edit: Thomas Seest

Assistence: Eva Tarp and Sarah Redmond

Prismefilm 2015

thomas@dandruff.dk

LINK: Titania III

<https://youtu.be/QG640zOFQZs>

LINK: A midsummer nights dream

<https://youtu.be/vnGGYp0kYzY>